

Glass & architecture competition , 2015 Glass Biennial Event

ESGAA is now staging the 2015 6th edition of the international glass Biennial Event ; it is due from October 15 to November 29 in Alsace. Within the frame of the event, ESGAA is launching a competition in close collaboration with Glasmalerei Peters (www.glasmalerei.de).

The latter is called "Glass and Architecture" and is open to any artist willing to use one or several glass techniques without size limitations.

- laminated glass sheets,
- laminated glass with digital printing,
- slumped glass,
- decorated or painted laminated glass
- sandblasted glass
- stained glass

and so on...

Three proposals shall be selected by the jury and developed by Glasmalerei Peters. The 3 prize-winners shall be asked for advice on site at Glasmalerei Peters in Germany.

They will stay on location as needed. Travel costs will be borne by the artists.

Glasmalerei will put an apartment at their disposal and pay for transfer between Neuenbecken and Paderborn if they wish.

Enrolment is available on line : <http://concoursesgaa.free.fr>

It will be confirmed and documents will be stored on line on a specific site.

Registration deadline : October 15 2014. Incomplete files shall be disregarded. All documents need to be digitized and include :

- an updated scanned ID.
- personal data (name, nationality, address, email, site, phone number)
- a 1-page résumé
- an outline of the project –name, optional technological description, draft.

- a 1-page description stating the relevance of the project. Any specific right to intellectual/artistic property ought to be voiced.

- one project only by artist –whether individual or group.

Selection will be done electronically. The jury will consist of 6 members and such criteria as creativity, relevance and feasibility will be used.

Artists will be contacted individually. Works will be exhibited at Strasbourg Biennial Event Art Show. Works shall remain the property of the artist. However, ESGAA and Glasmalerei Peters company shall retain artistic property and thus allowed to reproduce the works without any limitations nor costs. Artists are requested to become ESGAA members.
